1. Claims 6-10 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim may not depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 6-10 have not been further treated on the merits.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, lines 3 and 10, the phrase "for example" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d). A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd.

App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 1 recites the broad recitation "pharmaceutical formulation", and the claim also recites "a drug" which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation. In line 9, "and/or" is alternative and indefinite.

In claim 3, line 2, "the covering" lacks antecedent basis from parent claim 1.

In claims 4 and 5, line 1 of each, "a plastic jacket" is double recitation in view of the claims dependency from claim 2, which already defines a plastic jacket.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

5. Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dews (4,205,750). Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 01/87722. Each discloses a container (13; 10) having a transparent or nontransparent container wall and containing a pharmaceutical formulation and a covering (15; 30) which makes the pharmaceutical formulation appear opaque (hidden) is provided on the outside of the container wall so that the appearance of the pharmaceutical formulation is undetectable (hidden).

As to claims 2 and 4-5, WO 01/87722 discloses a plastic jacket (30).

As to claim 3, each discloses the covering (15; 30) detachably or undetachably arranged on the container wall.

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lerner (5,495,944) in view of any one of Chapman (2,810,978), Shank Jr. (3,937,853), Cavanagh et al. (3,955,020), DE 19536416 and WO 01/87722. Lerner discloses a container for pharmaceutical formulations including a covering in the form of a label. Chapman, Shank Jr., Cavanagh et al., DE 19536416 and WO 01/87722 each disclose a container having a transparent or nontransparent container wall and a covering (13; as shown; 2; 5; 30), which makes the pharmaceutical formulation appear opaque (hidden) or altered in appearance, provided on the outside of the container wall so that the appearance of the pharmaceutical formulation is undetectable (hidden).

As to claims 2-5, each of the secondary references discloses a plastic jacket as the covering, detachably or undetachably arranged on the container wall.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
